

SOCIAL POLICY & SOCIAL WORK TEACH-OUT

UNIVERSITIES AND SOCIAL JUSTICE: POTENTIALS, BARRIERS, PROBLEMS

WHEN

Tuesday, 10 March, 12– 2pm

WHERE

Holmefield Centre, 5
min from HesHall, Peel
Close, YO10 5EN

Everyone welcome

For all students and members of staff at the University of York

Questions? Contact

ruth.patrick@york.ac.uk /

enrico.reuter@york.ac.uk

PROGRAMME

Antonios Roumpakis

Introduction: Universities and social justice

Zoë Irving

Austerity's legacy

Enrico Reuter

All is competition – or is it?

Ellen Roberts

Current challenges for university governance: a perfect storm?

What is the university for?

Zine making with Ruth Patrick and Kate Brown

Down your usual work tools & get creative as we look at the purpose (and realities) of universities today. All materials provided but do bring along any images that you'd especially like to include in your very own DIY magazine.

John Hudson

23 things they don't tell you about marketisation of universities in England

Alison Wallace

Code Encounters in Social Policy: Algorithms and access to critical services

Kevin Farnsworth

Uncovering power: lobbying in the UK

Tea and coffee provided

Bring your own lunch 😊